

Spring Arts Festival

This year's edition of the Printemps des Arts de Monte-Carlo from March 28th to April 13th promises to be even more eclectic than in previous years. Highlights on the programme include concert evenings devoted to Chopin, Messaien, Beethoven and Schönberg, Janacek's opera Jenufa and two days devoted to music for children. The Philharmonic Orchestras of Monte-Carlo, Nice and Radio France will be participating, together with the Choirs of the Monte-Carlo Opera, several ensembles and soloists. The festival is also diversifying by introducing theatre evenings, plus a day devoted to the cinema and music. Grimaldi Forum, Avenue Princesse Grace, Monaco (377 93 25 58 04). www.printempsdesarts.com
